

The School of St Jude

Fighting poverty through education

Giving

1,800

students free, quality education

100's

of graduates higher education

10,000+

Tanzanians quality teaching each year.

Learn more about the facts behind the numbers

About Tanzania >>>>

70%

 of the population live on less than AU$2.70 a day.

Over 12 million Tanzanians are living in poverty.

74%

 are not in secondary school.

An adult averages 5.8 years of schooling.

97%

of children are not in higher education.

Our students >>>>

57%

 of students are female.

Top 0.6%

 Standard 7's* national ranking.

*Last year of primary school

1st Nationwide

 Form 6's* results in Advanced Mathematics

*Last year of secondary school

Our school >>>>

1,800

 students in primary and secondary school.

1:16

 average ratio of teachers to students.

Three times better than the national average.

1,400

 students in safe and supportive boarding.

Operating for

17 years

1,152

visitors in 2018.

Our graduates >>>>

2019

 the year we have our first university graduates through the Beyond St Jude's (BSJ) program.

72%

 of BSI scholars studying higher education courses linked to Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM).

Our impact >>>>

80% of graduates' families overcome extreme poverty.

Based on means assessment of family circumstances of Form 6 students.

49 government schools benefitting from Community Service Year Interns teaching core subjects.

40,000+ children taught by Interns in local government schools since 2015.

AU$7million injected into the Tanzanian economy each year.

Our governance >>>>

AU$0.98

of every dollar donated is made available to support the school.

Accounts audited nationally and internationally.

Advisory boards made up of staff, parents and local community representatives involved in decision making.

Local empowerment >>>>

270+ local staff, including academic and business leaders. All of our teachers are Tanzanian.

48 elected parents representing areas students are from, keeping parents informed and strengthening the relationship between the school and the community.

The numbers are adding up!

With your help, St Jude's can continue to make a difference!

www.schoolofstjude.org